

For Immediate Release:

INCRED-A-SHRED PLAYS A PART IN MONEY POWER DAY

March 21, 2009

Baltimore, Maryland -- Money Power Day

- 158 people had their private documents shredded on-site by Incred-A-Shred; a total of 5,432 pounds of materials were shredded in a three-hour period that was free to the Baltimore community
- Over 1,500 Baltimoreans attended Money Power Day on Saturday March 21st, and more than 50% of the attendees were low- and moderate-income individuals.
- Over 100 individuals earning less than $42,000 per year had their taxes prepared for free
- Hundreds of individuals pulled their credit report and met with credit counselors provided by the Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Maryland and Delaware
- 29 homeowners facing foreclosure met with attorneys provided by the Pro Bono Resource Center of Maryland and Civil Justice
- 127 youth played Port Discovery's Money Game, 173 children played the Power Bucks Game, and 65 youth participated in peer-to-peer workshops taught by the Academy of Finance and the National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship

About Incred-A-Shred:

Incred-A-Shred is a locally owned and operated on-site document and media destruction company. They are headquartered in northern Baltimore county. They have a fleet of mobile shredding units that service the state of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, and Washington, D. They service commercial, government, and residential customers. For more information call 1-888-467-4744 or visit the web at www.Incred-A-Shred.com.